The trainee's qualifications from the Petzl certificate are valid as long as s/he maintains the certified content skills. Not using or practicing the acquired skills on a regular basis may lead to non-competence, and with it a lack of certificate validity, within a very short period. Maintaining such skills is the responsibility of the Trainee and, where relevant, the employer. This certificate shall be returned to the Petzl Technical Institute upon demand. By signing this certificate, the trainee agrees to the terms and conditions on the reverse side.

Certificate General Terms and Conditions

These General Terms and Conditions are established by the ZEDEL company, a French limited liability company with share capital of 2,400,000 euros, registered with the Grenoble, France company registry under registration number 411 851 926, and headquartered in the Crolles industrial zone in 38920 Crolles, France, also acting on behalf of other Petzl Group entities, hereinafter referred to as "Petzl".

The trainee shall:

1. Comply with the defined uses and techniques of the Petzl Solutions Module.
2. Comply with all Petzl-initiated modifications in the use and techniques of the Petzl Solutions Module.
3. Agree that Petzl's Solution documents (including, but not limited to, training, support, processes, presentations, technical drawings, and any modifications or translations thereof) are the exclusive property of Petzl.
Any representation, reproduction, modification, or translation, in whole or in part, or distribution in any form, without the prior written consent of Petzl is strictly prohibited.
4. Comply with all applicable legal requirements pertaining to the use and techniques of the Petzl Solutions Module.
5. Comply with the defined content, procedures, and requirements for each Petzl Solutions Module which s/he uses or claims to use. Any deviations from the Module must have prior written approval from Petzl.
6. Immediately inform his/her local Petzl Technical Institute of any serious incident or accident, irrespective of whether any injury occurs, that arises from the use of the Petzl Solutions Module.
7. Be solely liable for his/her acts and omissions, and bear all costs and expenses related to any complaints made against him/her.

Be solely responsible for their non-compliance with Petzl-defined procedures, techniques and requirements defined for all Petzl Solutions Modules.

8. Maintain competence for certified Petzl Solutions Module content by using and practicing acquired skills on a regular basis.
9. Acknowledge and agree that Petzl Solutions Module training provides only part of the knowledge necessary for uses and techniques, and does not replace the need for general training.
10. Complete all refresher training related to the Petzl Solutions Module to ensure safety and effectiveness.
11. Provide contact information, including any later changes, to his/her Petzl Technical Partner or Petzl Technical Institute so that they may provide him/her with information on any changes to the Petzl Solutions Module.

This certificate relates only to the Petzl LEZARD, Petzl PPE Inspection Competent Person, Work at Height, Partner Rescue Modules and Petzl EXO Evacuation System User, and Trainer Modules.

All other Petzl Solutions Modules are attendance-only certification.

Petzl, Petzl America, the Petzl Technical Partner, or the Petzl Technical Institute, at any time after notifying the trainee, and at their own discretion, withdraw this certification for any reason, including without limitation, non-compliance with these terms and conditions, or reasons related to safety and effectiveness. Upon receipt of such notice, you shall immediately cease referring to your Petzl Solutions Module certification, and cease using any Petzl Solutions copyrighted material, trademarks, trade names, business names or corporate names related to this certification.

Corresponding Certificate:

This Petzl certificate, including all privileges and authorizations, is valid for the term in which the trainee maintains the certified content skills. Not using or practicing the acquired skills on a regular basis may lead to non-competence and non-compliance, and with it a lack of certificate validity, within a very short period. Maintaining such skills is the responsibility of the Trainee and, where relevant, the employer. Petzl, or its affiliates, reserve the right to revoke this certification upon notification of the trainee. By signing this certificate, the trainee acknowledges and agrees to Petzl's terms and conditions.

Personal information:

The personal data included in and collected from the blank fields in the certificate may be transferred to Petzl, and may be subject to automated processing. The data include professional contact details of the trainee (such as first and last name, and company). The data are exclusively collected and processed for statistical purposes and to verify compliance of the certificate content. PETZL will retain these data until completion of said statistical studies and verification of compliance. In accordance with France's Act 78-17 of January 6, 1978 on information technology, data files and civil liberties, as amended, and with EU Regulation 2016/679 relating to the protection of personal data, data subjects retain the right to access, rectify, delete ("right to be forgotten"), and restrict the processing and transfer of their data.

Any trainee wishing to exercise these rights and obtain information on the processed data may send an email to: dataprivacy-eu@petzl.com. In the event of breach of said European regulation by Petzl, affected persons have the right to lodge a complaint with relevant local supervisory authorities.
